

Avalon Golf Course

Avalon Golf Course is a public course located on Barrenjoey Road at Avalon. The entrance to the course is off The Crescent Avalon. It was opened in October 1926 initially for private members and was sold to Warringah Council in 1956 becoming a public course thereafter. The course is made up of 9 holes with undulating fairways in amongst significant remnant vegetation and introduced species. There are also three heritage-listed buildings on the course. Known by locals as “Royal Avalon” it is the perfect venue for private parties, intimate weddings and corporate functions. Recently refurbished Avalon Golf Club is a stylish and contemporary venue with beautiful surrounds and plenty of parking.
